KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN.
Albion at Louisville, Aug. 10th, 1907.

Resolved, by the Republican party in Convention assembled—
First—That we reaffirm the principles of the Republican party as set forth in the platform adopted by it at St. Louis in 1904.
Second—That we reaffirm the Republican National and State Administrations, and especially commend the action of our present state officials in their efforts to suppress mob violence and to preserve the financial credit of the state.
Third—We commend the action of the representatives of the Republican party in the passage of a tariff bill which will raise revenue sufficient to support the Government, prevent the issue of interest-bearing bonds, protect American labor and maintain the National credit.
Fourth—We are opposed to an official of Civil Service that builds up a system of class with practically a life tenure in almost all branches of the public service, and we demand that the Civil Service Law be modified so as to limit the term of office of the officials, with the privilege of reappointment or promotion, subject to such restrictions as will secure competent officials and give to every section of the country its proper proportion of them.
Fifth—We heartily sympathize with the struggling people of Cuba in their efforts to secure liberty and independence.
Sixth—That we recommend to the people the adoption of the Constitutional amendment submitted by the late Legislature, allowing all cities and towns the privilege of regulating under legislative supervision the method of using the taxes they impose on themselves for city and town expenses.
Seventh—We favor the passage of a law that will protect the laborer of Kentucky from the competition of convict labor, and if necessary to accomplish said result, an amendment to the Constitution permitting such legislation.

"The best way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it."—General Grant.
Therefore THE LEDGER favors the rigid enforcement of the Civil Service Law.

Are you going to vote for the amendment to the Constitution allowing cities and towns to regulate their own taxation for municipal purposes? If you favor local self-government you will vote "Yes" with a big Y.

RELIVING ON MR. BRYAN'S STATEMENT
That what would be worth only $50 cents this year if the silverite candidate for President should be defeated, Farmer SHERRMAN of Laurel, Ind., contracted a year ago to sell his wheat at 60 cents. The loss is changing his politics.

"What are we here for except for the pleasure?" Let the slugs be expressive "Nix" be the faithful answer. Notwithstanding every man of them is rolling in the wealth of a bootleg government, the members of the U. S. R. in connection with Buffalo last week, demanded a service pension after the age of 62 is reached. Good Godfrey! where is the thing ever to end? Why not turn the whole revenue of the Government over to the coffee coolers as be done with it?—Interior Journal.

Aren't you ashamed to call every one-legged, one-armed and battered old soldier a "coffee cooler"?

No doubt a great many draw pensions who are not entitled; but do you doubt that a great many more are deserving who have been deprived of their just dues by the obstacles Hoke Smith threw in the way?

And what have you to say of an Administration that professes devotion to the worthy soldier and yet turns him out of office to give the place to some War beeler because the latter is a Democrat?

Judge L. W. Robertson has our thanks for copies of Colorado Springs papers.

George M. Clinegar has the contract for building the boiler-house for the new laundry.

Mr. Sam J. Roberts, the incoming Revenue Collector of this District, has written a letter to the Civil Service Commission, asking that more time be given those who wish to stand the Civil Service examination, for filing their applications. A lack of blanks at the office of the Secretary of the Board has made it impossible for many to send in their applications at the proper time.

The entertainment given by Miss Anna Martin at Germantown last Thursday night was a grand success. Artistically and financially, the house being crowded. According to the reports, the Bonanza, which for so many years has carried the laurels as being the fastest boat on the Upper Ohio, will have to give way to the Queen City, which is conceded to be the fastest packet now running, having easily beaten the Bonanza on both of her last two trips up the river.

Quite an accident took place near Pearl's Sunday night. TRAIN ROBBERY.

Masked Men Board a Blind Baggage at Folsom, Cal.

Engineer and Fireman Ordered to Stop at a Crossing.

Two of the men entered the Express Car and threw open the safe. It is estimated the bandits secured between $3,000 and $15,000—Folsom in Pursuit.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 4.—News has just reached here that the Gulf passenger train No. 1 was held up and robbed at Twin Mountain Friday night at 11:30 by two masked men.

The two men got on the blind baggage at Folsom and when nearing Twin Mountain they climbed over the tender of the engine, and covering the engineer and fireman with revolvers, ordered them to stop when they reached the road crossing.

At Twin Mountain two men were stationed at the road crossing with four horses, and as soon as the train stopped they began to shoot their revolvers and to intimidate the passengers. Two men entered the express car and blew open the safe. It is estimated that the bandits secured between $3,000 to $15,000.

Immediately on receiving the news at Folsom, a posse was organized and started in pursuit. A posse also started from Trinidad at two a. m. The railroad company have offered a reward of $500 for the capture of the robbers.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PARTY.

The Guests of the Ohio State Board of Agriculture.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 4.—President McKinley and party arrived at 10 a. m. Friday as guests of the Ohio state board of agriculture. They were preceded by Hon. James Wilson, secretary of agriculture, who rejoined them. With the president came Mrs. McKinley, Senator and Mrs. Aldrich, and Mrs. Myron Herrick, Wob. C. Hayes and other personal friends.

Upon arrival the committee on reception appointed by the board of agriculture, escorted the president between lines of police to the station where in the vicinity of the station was immense, the weather being fine and the attendance at the fair very large.

Col. John S. Poland, in command of the Seventeenth United States infantry, and Col. J. H. McQuinn, in command of the Fourteenth Ohio national guard infantry, together with the Janita Hussars, J. C. L. Pugh commanding, received the president and his entourage with present arms. He was then escorted, the city police leading the way, to the Great Southern hotel, which assigned rooms appropriate to the occasion.

En route to the hotel the president was recognized by thousands of people and handsome, patriotic decoration of buildings, to which he responded in the usual way. His face is very familiar to citizens of Columbus.

The outpouring of people evinced more of the feeling of a warm welcome than to a great army commander, to which the scene might be compared.

Luncheon having been served at the hotel in the regular dining room, to which all the invited guests and people were admitted as usual, the president and party took carriage for the fair, overtaking the military band which had gone ahead "to rest in the shade" as desired by the president until he came to them at a point near the entrance.

Having carried a gun himself and other military accoutrements he seemed not to have forgotten how soldiers, in war, and especially in peace, are often required to stand for hours awaiting the convenience of dignitaries.

Marching into the large fair grounds, the procession moved through a sea of human beings to the main building, where the president and party were met by school children from Columbus and many parts of the state, all of whom had been especially invited by card and admitted free.

The president expressed himself as being especially pleased to meet the children. Later, the president's party was escorted to various buildings of interest where short speeches were made, and informal receptions given.

The president is now in the cottage in which Grant was born. It is enclosed in a building of steel and glass and is the property of the owners of Ohio, being permanently loaned to the fair grounds.

It is variously estimated that between 75,000 and 100,000 people were gathered on the state fair grounds Friday afternoon to greet President McKinley, but only a few hundred were numbered as to hear the brief speech which he delivered. It was school children's day at the fair, and thousands of little ones came through the crowd. President McKinley directed his remarks in part to them.
